IT IS NOW SAID

That a certain young lady visited the barking sands recently.

That she took a quantity of sand home with her for the purpose of keeping burglars away at night with its barking.

That the sand has plenty of grit but little bark.

That the Public Works Department didn't seem anxious to have local contractors bid on the Hanalei Wharf.

That the Department did not advertise for bids in the Kauai paper, presumably to prevent our local contractors from bidding.

That it didn't work—the public.

That Kauai's contractors are men who are on the job.

That their bids were lowest.

That the fact that bids were in excess of the appropriation, may give the Department an excuse for further delay.

That if the Department is unable to administer affairs with better success than in the past, a Kauai man should be put at the helm.

That some say the Department is all O. K.

That it is, but it isn't.

That if it was it would advertise Kauai Contracts in Kauai's paper.

That it never fails to remember this paper when it can be of service in exploiting free information.

That this paper is willing to be of help in such instances, but believes in getting a square deal.

That the young ladies' dance at Makaweli was a grand success.

That the girls of Makaweli are they received from drummers while widely known for their hospitality.

That they are "neat and sweet and hard to beat."

That the new Ball Park which was recently dedicated to the public by the McBryde Plantation, is the kind of gift that is most appreciated.

That Walter McBryde has a great big heart and works it overtime when it comes to interesting himself in athletic sports.

That if all our influential men would show as much interest in their employees, sport would become what it should.

That its nice to be married.

That its not nice (to hubby) to come home to a pick-up dinner.

That pink tea habitues should remember that hubby comes home to be fed.

That a touch of the wifely hand in arranging the dinner is appreciated by hubby.

That every woman should try the experiment and maybe hubby wouldn't have a grouch so often.

That trouble is brewing in a prominent family.

That it may eventually reach Honolulu.

That if it does there'll be something doing.

That some well-known parties may feel it their duty to "beat it."

That it would be best to follow the old saying and "do it now."

That the Waimea basketball team feel sore over the drubbing which

That they should feel thankful for the lesson they learned.

That the girls should not feel discouraged.

That there was good playing by both teams and the girls played like the professionals they are.

That fate was against them—so was the drummer boys.

That the drummers are hard to beat at any game.

That the girls will practise for a return game when the bunch comes again.

That a certain young man is very absent minded.

That he forgot a date.

That when he thought of it, the young lady had vanished.

That an auto got tired and failed to "get there."

That the load was loaded and so was the auto.

That a certain young lady complained of being lonely.

That to live in the Molokai region is enough to make a saint backslide.

That Lihue was recently visited by a frost.

That it melted as the Maui departed.

That a like frost may be expected in about three months.

That Kauai is becoming accustomed to these frosty visits, and enjoys them.

Hanalei Happenings

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Werner made a visit to Lihue.

Last Saturday Mr. Menefoglio, manager and electrician of the electric power house at Wainiha, and his wife and children were the guests of Mrs. Deverill.

Sunday, Mrs. Deverill, Miss Deverill, Annie, and Herbert made a flying trip of about 125 miles in an automobile to the southern side of the island to visit Mrs. Deverill's son.

On Friday afternoons at school there is always an interesting company of girls engaged in sewing. Lately they have been busy making garments from a bolt of unbleached muslin which came into their possession a few weeks ago.

Talk about energy and enthusiasm! If a person wishes to see a good sample of it just let him visit Mrs. Ah's room while the little tots are singing "This is the way we wash our clothes so early in the morning."

Some of the garden seeds came at last, and it would have done one good to watch the eager boys last Friday afternoon mark off the beds and plant the seeds. A few flower seeds came also and the girls took possession of them and planted them by the cottage.

The other day after nearly all the pupils had gone home, it was discovered that the flag cord had fallen to the ground. The teacher was at a loss as to how to get the cord in place again, but the problem was soon solved as the ever-resourceful George and Sangero, happened to be present. Sangero, with the cord in his mouth, climbed the pole like a squirrel, and, under George's directions, attached the cord to the top of the pole and brought it down again.
